

Profile

Introduction

Columbia, SC

Affectionately called the Midlands, Columbia, South Carolina is located in the middle of the state and is comprised of a diverse variety of neighborhoods, heritages, and historical districts. The city is the capitol of South Carolina and many statewide government functions are located in the municipality.

Population: 133,358

Service Area: 800,495

Hospital Facts

Located in the heart of Columbia, Providence Health is a 258-bed, acute care facility that provides medical services to the people of Richland and Lexington Counties and surrounding areas. A healthcare leader in the community, the hospital offers a host of services including: emergency services, cardiac services, critical care, acute care, diagnostic imaging, neurological services, rehabilitation and surgery.

Providence Health is fully accredited by DNV, the Society of Chest Pain Centers and the Cardiovascular School of Diagnostics is accredited by the Commission of Accreditation of Allied Health Education Programs. In addition, the facility has received the highest rated award of 3-stars by the Society of Thoracic Surgeons 19 times in a row. We are proud to offer patients access to state-of-the-art technology including: Transcatheter Aortic Valve Replacement (TAVR), Electrophysiology laboratory, CT Scans, radiology, SpenoCath technology for headaches and migraines and nuclear medicine procedures.

As part of LifePoint Health, a leading healthcare company dedicated to making communities healthier, employed physicians at Providence Health benefit from LifePoint's extensive resources, knowledge and experience in operating community hospitals. Additionally, Providence Health offers a competitive benefits package, including:

- Competitive Salary
- Corporate Health, Dental, and Disability Benefits
- Talent Development
- Retirement Savings Program
- Student Loan Repayment
- Stipend/Sign-on Bonus

Mission: Making Communities Healthier by Extending Christ's Healing Ministry